

Figure 2. Diagram of the question tree used to classify galaxies in GZ2. The tasks are colour-coded by their depth in the question tree. As an example, the arm number question (T10) is a fourth-tier question – to answer that particular question about a given galaxy, a participant needs to have given a particular response to three previous questions (that the galaxy had features, was not edge-on and had spiral arms).